Public perceptions 2023

England

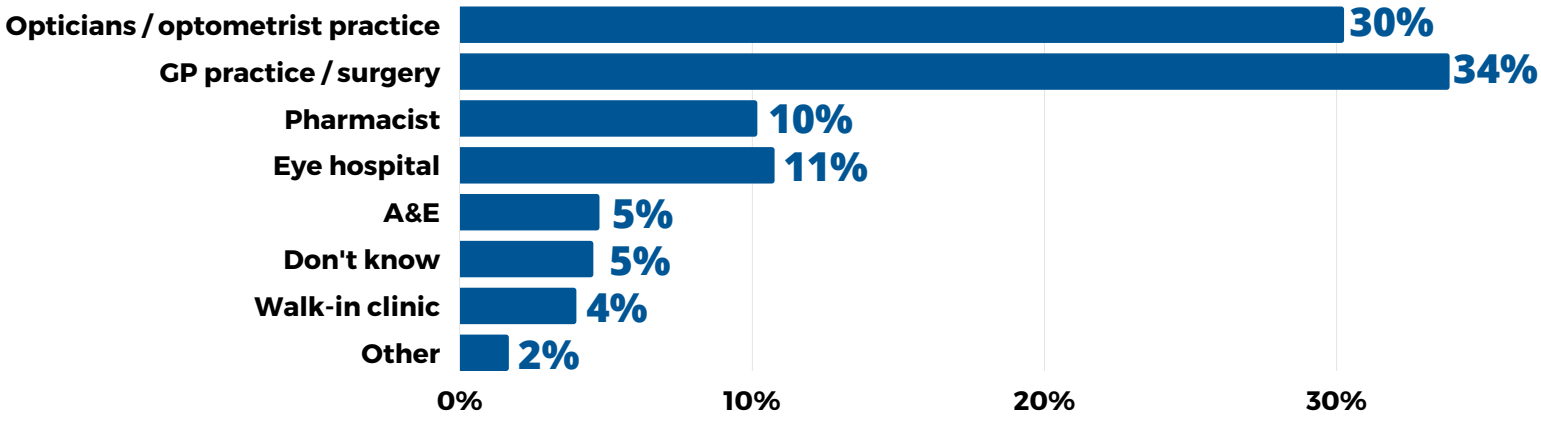
94%

of respondents who had a sight test / eye examination in the last two years were satisfied with the optometrist who carried it out

77%

said they had been for a sight test in the last two years, with 4% saying they had never had a sight test

If you woke up tomorrow with an eye problem...where would you go or who would you speak to first?



24%

shopped around before deciding which optician / optometrist to go to 14%

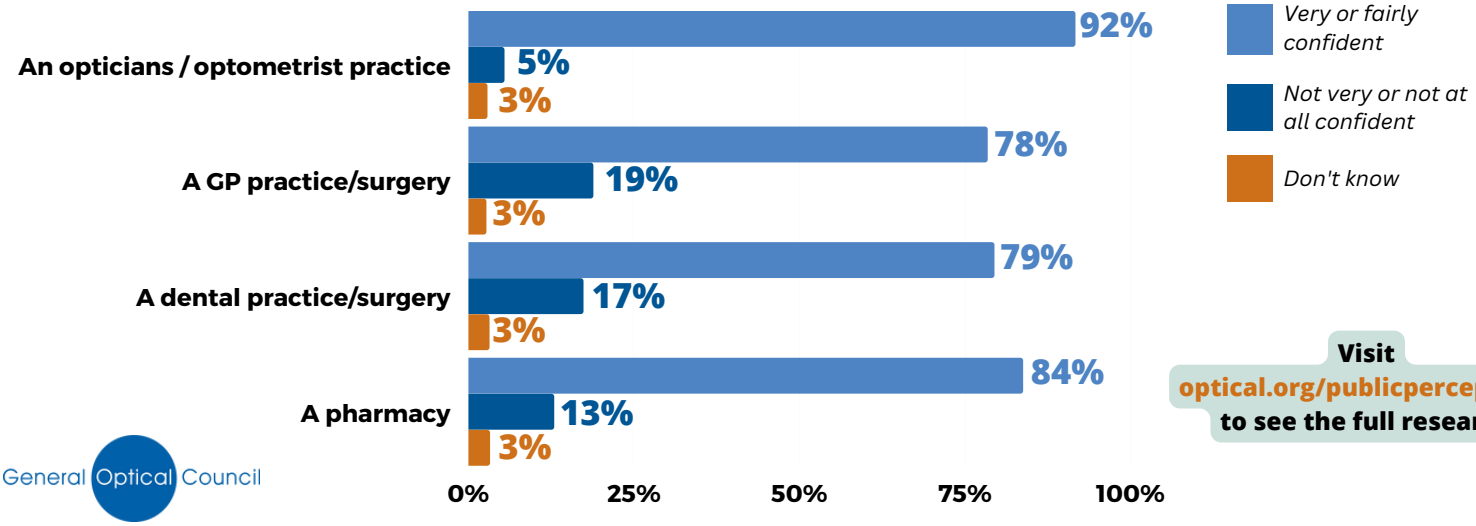
had experienced a situation where something has gone wrong with the care / service they received when visiting an opticians / optometrist practice

How confident or otherwise are you of receiving a high standard of care from each of the following healthcare services?



Visit optical.org/publicperceptions to see the full research

General Optical Council